

LOCAL LORE.

NEWS OF CORVALLIS AND VICINITY TOLD IN BRIEF.

The Comings and Goings of People Social Gossip, Personal Men- tion and Other Items of Public Interest.

—Uda Cate of Ridgefield, Washington, arrived Sunday morning, and is visiting his brothers, Rufus and Cleve Cate.

—Eighty-seven people went on the excursion over the C & E Sunday. Of the number less than a dozen went from Corvallis.

—Miss Claudia Anderson left Sunday for her home at Lents, Oregon.
She was the guest during Commemoration of the Misses Chipman.

—Eugene Jackson has just completed a large and commodious barn on his farm, one mile of Wren station, the dimensions of which are 46 feet long, 25 feet wide, 22 foot posts and 16 foot sheds.

—Miss Naomi Cowan of Lebanon, went to Monmouth Sunday to attend the graduating exercises of her sister, Miss Kathryn Cowan. Miss Cowan finished a three months term of school in the Newton district Friday.

—Mr. H. L. Richardson of the Eastman Kodak Co. will give a Public Demonstration with Velox Paper at Graham & Wells Drug Store, June 29, from 7 to 9 P. M. All Kodak people are requested to be present.

—In the county clerk's office Monday Frank Hughes made final proof on his homestead in Alsos. The entry filing was made in 1897. His witnesses Monday were Eldon Bowen and Frank Selts. The homestead comprises 162 acres, and lies in section 32, located on Little Lobster.

R. C. Kiger figured in a runaway accident the other day. His team took fright and he was thrown out and dragged several yards but without injury beyond a few bruises. The buggy was considerably damaged.

—The annual school election for selection of a director and clerk occured Monday. It resulted in the choice of George E. Lilly as director and W.
A. Buchanan as clerk. The school board now consists of F. L. Miller, chairman; Charles Runt and George Lilly.

—Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Meyer and their three sons, Conrad, Jr., Lawrence and Charles, drove over in a private conveyance from Albany, last Sunday, and spent the afternoon with their relatives of the household of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Phil. They returned to their home about 6 o'clock in the evening.

—E. W. Hall, who has been in the confection business in Corvallis for more than a dozen years has sold out his business, and with his family, is to leave today for other fields. His plans for the future are not yet determined upon, but a location in Portland is one of the possibilities. Mr.
Hall has many warm friends who regret the departure of himself and family.

—Carl Hodes, one of the founders of the establishment is again behind the counter in the Hall confectionery store and Bakery. He is sole proprietor, having purchased the interest of both Mr. Hall and Mr. Read, and assumed charge Monday morning. Mr.
Hodes is a thorough wide awake business man, and has many friends who are glad to see him return to Corvallis.

—Prof. O. Tallantier, of Huron, South Dakota, has been selected as head of the piano department at the college, vice Mordant Goodenough, resigned. Tallantier is a German, and was educated in music in the Fatherland. Miss Harrington of Corvallis, has been under his instruction for the past year, and it was through her that he became an applicant for the vacant position at O. A. C.

—The Lions had an election of officers at their lodge Monday, with the following result: President, Dr. Altman; vice, Lucy Dilley; secretary, M.
T. Starr; treasurer, H. H. Cronise; chaplain, Anna Day; sergeant at arms, Ray Cady; assistant, Pearl Jones; doorkeeper, Guy Seeley; sentinel, D.
W. Fraser; physician, Dr. Altman; musician, Alpha Murray; trustee, West Newton; captain of the team, C.
A. Toggall.

—The county road roller figured in an accident the other day. Ben Harris and Charles Miller also figured in it. The machine weighs six tons, and Harris and Miller, with a team of eight horses were using it on a hill grade near Lin-dermans, on the Mt. View road. Things were working smoothly, until the big ring to which the team was hitched gave way, when the roller with its passengers began a career on its own hook. When it was through with its pirouetting, the machine was bottom side up at the foot of the hill, and Harris and Miller were scattered about in several directions. Nobody was hurt and the chief damage to the roller was the smashing of the seat.

—There is complaint among farmers to the effect that the spring crop will be very light. They go so far as to say that in some fields it will be a practical failure. The late backwardness of the spring, and the absence of rain since in large part assigned as the cause. A good rain is much desired now by everybody.

—On a number of farms in the county, haying is in progress. In some instances, farmers put the mower at work the latter part of last week. Usually it is spots on high or especially dry land that are being cut now. It is two weeks earlier than haying usually begins, and is due to lack of rain. Some farmers say the crop will be very light.

—A feature of the 4th of July celebration at Corvallis is the racing meet to be held on Kiger's track south of town, the afternoon of July 2nd. The events will be as follows: Three minute trot or pace for green horses, $100; free for all, trot or pace, $100; one half mile dash, $50. Entrance fee, 10 per cent. Four to enter, three to start to qualify race. Harness race: 2 in 3 heats. Purse: divided 60, 25 and 15 per cent. Entries close July 1st, 6 p. m. Send all entries to W. H. Kline, Corvallis.

—Later conditions bear out all former statements with reference to the prune crop. The estimate of the big Prune Orchard now is 200 bushels, all old, when there ought to be many thousand bushels. In the D. C. Rose orchard, the trees are practically bare and the some is true of the Green Peak and Hugh Finley orchards. The statement is that there is a partial yield in the Excelsior orchard, and that in some of the orchards in the hills to the westward there is a fair sprinkling of fruit. The market, which has continued dull all Spring, shows a slightly better tone, but is not materially improved.

—Leo Burnett, son of the sheriff, was injured in a runaway accident Friday afternoon. He is a likely lad to work, and recently gave up a job on the butchers wagon to take charge of the steam laundry delivery. The laundry plant was in process of removal, and the delivery wagon with a number of clothes racks piled high in it was making the trip from the old to the new quarters. Near the Occidental hotel, the horse took fright and began to run. Leo, was thrown out and a deep gash was cut in the top of his head. He was also shaken up and bruised.

—The city smallpox patient is expected to come back into the world today. He was visited by Dr. Farrar Monday afternoon and his condition found to be such as to warrant the raising of the quarantine. Yesterday he was provided with ample bathing appliances, and some time today, after a thorough fumigation of his clothing and such other precautions as are necessary, he will quit the pest house.
He was put under quarantine two weeks ago tomorrow.

—The account is that Hugh Finley is digging up his prune orchard. He has had but one profitable crop in seven years, and has become wearied with watching and waiting. He was the pioneer prune man of the county and at one time had much confidence in the industry. He has an orchard of 30 or forty acres, and with the experience of the late years is convinced that he can turn his land to better account. Adjoining his orchard is St.
Berrens, and he too, is vexed with conditions. It is said that he will try the business one more year and that if returns are not better than they have averaged in the past, the grubbing machine will be applied to his trees and the land be turned to a safer and surer crop.

—A smart affair of last week was a party given by Mrs. E. C. Hayward at her home at Alpha Hall on Friday evening. Progressive Pedro was the pastime and trophies were awarded Mrs. C. M. McKellips and E. E. Willson. The hostess was aided in serving a delicious lunch by Mrs. A. L.
Kelsely and Mrs. C. M. McKellips.
The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Renzie, Mr. and Mrs. A. L.
Kelsely, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McKellips, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Elgie, Miss Mabel Withcombe, Miss Grace Gatch, Miss Louise Cooper, Miss Helen Holgate, Miss Mabel Jones, Brooks, Miss Agnes Watt, Portland; Miss Lulu Spangler, Miss Juliet Cooper, Miss Edna Irvine, Misses Briggs, Logan Hays, D. Gibbs, F. L. Kent, Bert Pilkington, T. McDevitt, H. W. Kaupisch, E. E.
Wilson, Bowen Lester.

—That Benton county woods may readily be transformed into the finest furniture is evidenced by the work of the Coibert Furniture Company. This firm is making a refrigerator that is one of the best on the market. It is made in various sizes but all of the same general design; they are made of ash and oak, mounted with brass trimmings. In the design they have departed from those generally on the market, keeping in mind, however, the accommodation of the house wife. Very little space is lost for it is so arranged with openings that all parts are easily accessible. The walls are not metal lined as in many, they deem this not necessary, as wood is a better nonconductor of heat and cold than metal, but of course they do have all necessary works, dishes and drip pans, which are so arranged as to be easily removed when necessary. Proper precautions have also been taken for ventilation. Through years of experience these men are now able to place on the market an article that will meet the strongest competition.

Tokio, June 18.—In addition to sinking the transports Hitachi and Shelling the Sado, the Russian sank the Idzumi, a transport homeward bound, carrying sick soldiers.

The Idzumi was sunk by the Vladivostok fleet off Oshima island last Wednesday morning. The Island of Oshima is situated near the northwest of the western entrance of the Tsugasu strait. The Idzumi was returning to Japan, and was carrying 108 passengers. The crew took to the boats when the Russian fleet was sighted.

The armored cruiser Gromoboi signalled for the boats to approach.
They complied, and all were taken on board and confined between decks over night.

Thursday morning the noncom-batants were released and sent aboard the Japanese vessel Unko, which brought them to Maizumi.
The Russian vessels are reported to have sailed in the direction of Hok-kaido.

Tokio, June 18.—A total of 509 survivors of the Japanese transports Sado and Hitachi, destroyed by Russian warships, have arrived at southern ports.

The Russians permitted 610 non-combatants to leave the Sado, but there whereabouts is unknown.

The Japanese officers and soldiers who were detained on board the Sado had prepared to commit suicide, but changed their minds when the Russians suddenly departed. There was apparently no chance given the noncombatants on board the Hitachi to leave, and the Russians raked the crowded decks of the crippled transport with shrapnels. The Japanese denounce this action as barbarous, indicating the clear intent of the Russians to kill defenseless men instead of a simple desire to destroy the ship.

Washington, June 14.—United States Consul-General Gunners, at Tangier, Morocco, today cabled to the state department, indicating that the negotiations for the release of Perdicaris and Varley have not yet been completed. Just where the hitch is, cannot be learned. It is expected that it relates to the vexed question of a guarantee by the United States and Great Britain of immunity for Raisuli and the faithful observance of the Sultan's promises. As a result of today's advice, officials here have changed their opinion as to the date of the release of the captives, and say that several days must yet elapse.

The distance of Raisuli's headquarters makes the negotiations drag.

INDIGESTION
"I was troubled with stomach trouble. Theodor's Black-Draught did me more good in one week than all the doctor's medicine I took in a year."—MRS. SARAH E.
SHIRWELL, Ellettsville, Ind.
Theodor's Black Draught quickly invigorates the action of the stomach and cures even chronic cases of indigestion. If you will take a small dose of Theodor's Black Draught occasionally you will keep your stomach and liver in perfect condition.

THEDFORD'S
BLACK-DRAUGHT
